Monthly Report January 2023

Football

Last week's game witnessed a 4-2 win against a London side, Metro Gas, in the quarter final of the Inter Regional Challenge cup. Borden are now through to the semi-finals. Saturday's away match (14th) was cancelled on the day following a referee's pitch inspection stating the ground was too soft due to the recent heavy rain. The side are currently mid-table but with games in hand as this 22/23 season reaches the halfway period. The next home match is next Saturday 21st, a league game against Tenham Ten.

Full details of the coming season senior matches can be found on the website <https://www.bordenvillagefc.co.uk/>

The Under Eights side continue to play their matches at the weekend.
