Parish Hall Incident

- On Saturday 28th March 2026, Police were called to a report of a disturbance outside of the Parsh hall. Upon police attendance there was no further disturbance, and all parties had left the location.

Following the above incident, concerns have been raised to me directly about possible drug dealing within the Car Park of the parish hall. I am working with Swale borough council and their CCTV operators to Identify vehicles and persons of interest.

Crime trends

- Currently there are no specific crime trends within the village.

My Community Voice

- Public surveys went live on 01/04/2026 and the new Top 3 Priorities have been released from the completed surveys. These are:

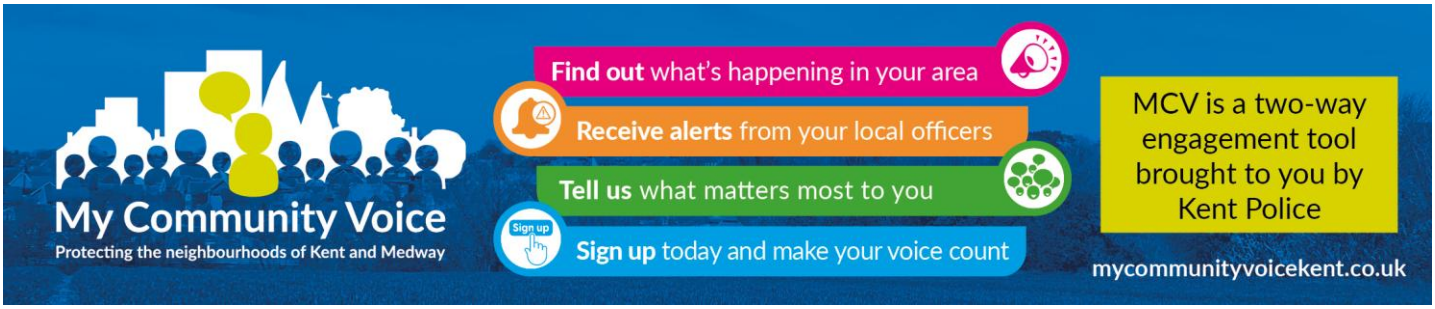
Road Safety


- I am working with Kent Community Speedwatch to try and reintroduce the scheme within the village. I am also liaising with the leaders of our local police cadets to assist in speed checks in and around the village.
