Elizabeth Barton ‘The Holy Maid of Kent’ was the subject of our September meeting; Melanie Gibson Barton gave a particularly informative, illustrated talk about this young Visionary of Aldington in Kent who was thought so dangerous to Henry VIII, Ann Boleyn and Catherine of Aragon that she had to be executed

On October 8th at 10.30am in the Parish hall BHG members and guests are invited to bring along any old interesting items from the local area to display at the meeting. The committee will also bring along items from our store that are not usually on display; this event will be preceded by a short Annual meeting to review the events of the previous year and share plans for 2026.

Our 2026 programme will be available next month.
Local visits to places of interest are usually free and we can arrange lifts if necessary, membership is currently £5 per year there is a small charge for meetings, guests are welcome.

If you would like to know more about our activities or join us for any of our meetings, please take a look at bordenheritage.co.uk for further details or come along to the Parish Hall at 10.30am on the second Wednesday of the month.

Eileen Harrison
Borden Heritage Group Chair