What's going on in your area

- I'd like to firstly apologise for my lack of visible policing in the last couple of months. An injury currently prevents me from being able to engage with not only the residents of Lower Halstow but to the other areas I am responsible for as well. Rest assured as soon as I am able to, I will resume my duties as normal and provide a first class service
- The Swale Beat Team has had an uplift recently of fantastic officers who are eagerly looking to get involved in their communities as soon as possible. Whilst I am office-bound if there are urgent enquiries that need looking into please don't be discouraged into not informing me; I will look for my colleagues for assistance in the meantime.

Local Stories

- There have been several reports of nuisance vehicles throughout the Borden area including quadbikes, off-road dirt bikes and cars as well. If these vehicles are spotted note that it is always worth the call to 101 or use our live-chat service to report it to Police which will make its way to me. If it becomes a pattern in a particular area CSU can focus its attention where needed. Registrations are very important, if visible, to identify the offenders.
- Police are aware of a domestic burglary occurring towards the beginning of the month. Please ensure you take appropriate measures to deter offenders in any way possible.
- Preventative measures are viewable here:
