Community events attended and next month's events in surgery

I am pleased to announce that below is the next Police Surgery within Borden.

This will give residents the opportunity to attend and speak to Police regarding any concerns they may have or simply to pop in and say hello.

We will be on hand to provide crime prevention advice and guidance.

Drop-in surgery

- Saturday 13th April 2024, 10am to 12pm
- Barrow Room, Borden Parish Hall

Your local officer is Police Sergeant

Ryan Chase

Good work story/stories

On Saturday 9th March PC Jez Chittim and PC Gary Morris conducted speed checks in Danaway. As a result a number of vehicles were seen exceeding the speed limit and one was issued a Traffic Offence Report for excess speed.

We will continue to deploy to the area when resources allow to enforce the speed limit.

Incidents of note

- On Thursday 15th February there were reports of a suspicious male who appeared to be following and possibly filming some females in Pond Farm Road. This male was located by Rural Task Force Officers and spoken to regarding his behaviour. Whilst nothing criminal was disclosed his behaviour was addressed with his employer who have since sacked him.
- On Friday 8th March there were reports of 2 young males aged around 14 with an air weapon. They appeared to be shooting at wildlife in the Wises Lane area. Patrols and police dog were deployed and located the firearm sleeve and sight sleeve. Enquiries are ongoing.
